Magpie

Fig Tree & co

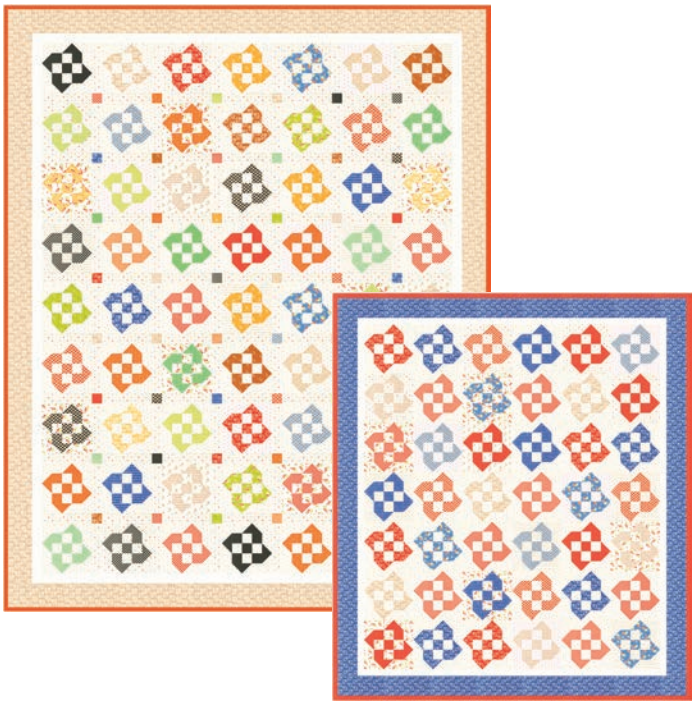

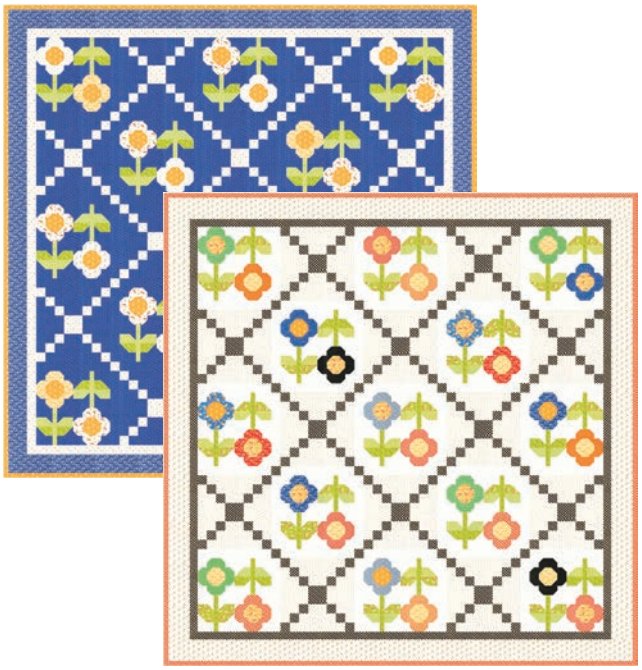

The MAGPIE collection is named after a charming & fascinating little bird that is one of nature's famous collectors. Have you heard the legend that a magpie is known for collecting bright & shiny objects and stealing them away to hoard in its nest? I know many of us can relate to that when it comes to the last bits of our favorite prints!!

Magpie is a group of some of my all time favorites and a few new additions of the kinds of "go to" prints that I reach for again & again and never want to be without!

These treasured prints accompanied by my signature soft and warm Fig Tree rainbow of saturated colors is definitely what you will find me sewing with for many projects to come. They are perfect on their own but also meant to serve as print and color bridges between all of those favorite Fig Tree fabrics that you can't live without.
