ALEXIA MARCELLE ABEGG

Early last year I was going through a box of keepsakes and found one of my favorite dresses. It was a dress my mom made me when I was around 12. It had a big sunflower print (very very 1990's!) that filled me with happy memories and nostalgia. I immediately started drawing sunflowers and animals and they grew into this sunny, happy and colorful collection, Daisy Days.

I hope this collection brings sunshine and joy to your sewing projects!

FLOWER FRIENDS!

I just love a cute skunk. I really do. My little skunks with their daisies were inspired by cute felt applique animals and vintage kids patches. I just love their big eyes and their cute poses.

My inspiration for Warp & Weft Daisy Days collection was pretty dreamy. I imagined a seaside journey with picnics, parties and late nights on the beach by a fire. I remembered a couple family trips to the pacific coast beaches and this is what came out! This collection is festive, bright and cheery and introduces some new weaves. I am particularly excited about all the dots!
